

FOX SET TO TROT!

MICHAEL J. FOX looks set to come to Australia next month.

He begins a three-month break in June and plans are to bring him out for the release of his new film, The Secret Of My Success.

Michael, who has often said he is very keen to visit Down Under, gained amazing popularity as the brash young business major Alex P. Keaton in Family Ties.

But it was the 1985 hit movie Back To The Future that established himself as one of Hollywood's hottest properties.

In The Secret Of My Success, Michael plays a college graduate from Kansas who aspires to be a top businessman in New York.

Last year Michael was to accompany his girlfriend Nancy McKeon to Australia when she made a two-hour episode of The Facts Of Life here.

But by the time the cast and crew of the American sitcom arrived in September, Michael and Nancy had split-up.

It was then hoped Michael would make it for this year's TV WEEK Logie Awards, but he was doing another film.

One point which remains a mystery is how he has so much time off.

In March TV WEEK reported Michael was threatening to quit Family Ties if the executive producer, Gary David Goldberg, left. Goldberg is rumored to be joining 20th Century Fox.
